Additional One Attempt to Even Semester Failure Students

This is to notify all students of Non-CBCS programmes that, so far, as per provisions, students were given four attempts of odd semester and four attempts of even semester examination before getting discontinued. Those who have failed in even semester examination and had already consumed their four attempts were not allowed to appear in make-up summer examination as ex-student.

Now hereafter, as resolved by Academic Council, the even semester failure students belonging to Non-CBCS programmes are allowed to appear in summer make-up examination (as ex-student) as an additional attempt.
