

Good Governance Day

Good Governance Day on 25th December, the birth date of former Prime Minister Shri Atal Bihari Bajpai, Shri Ramdeobaba College of Engineering and Management organized an inter-branch elocution Competition on "Technology and Innovation to promote Good Governance" on 24th December 2014. More than 20 students from different branches discussed the current and future role of technology and innovation in good governance in India. The competition was organized under aegis of Readers' Reverie, a Readers' club hosted by Department of Humanities of RCOEM.

Shri Govindlalji Agrawal, General Secretary of RCOEM congratulated the students for logically expressing their views on the topic of Good Governance. Dr. Rajesh Pande, the Principal of the college expressed satisfaction that awareness about Good Governance among students will pave the path for the development of the nation and the society. Dr. V. H. Asudani, Head, Department of Humanities, in his introductory remarks emphasized the importance of such competitions which not only promote communication skills among students but also orient them in important skills such as Good Governance. The winners were given cash prizes of Rs.15000/-, Rs.10000/- and Rs.5000/- respectively.

Dr. V. H. Asudani
Head
Department of Humanities
Shri Ramdeobaba College of Engineering and Management, Nagpur-46

Good Governance Day