

National Voters' Day 2022

25th January

Date: 25/01/2022

"Voting is the expression of our commitment to ourselves, one another, this country, and this world." - Sharon Salzberg

Every year, on 25th January, our nation commemorates National Voters' Day to mark the foundation day of Election Commission of India. This year, Shri Ramdeobaba College of Engineering and Management celebrated the day by heeding the theme, 'Making Elections Inclusive, Accessible and Participative'.

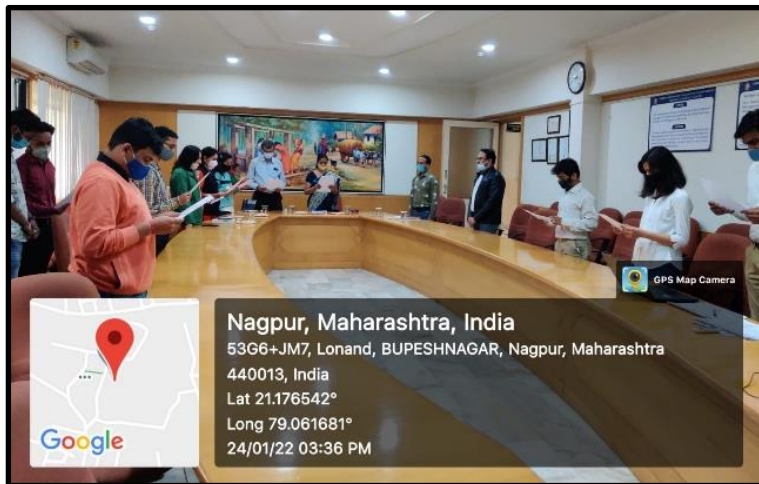

This year, ELC (Electoral Literacy Club) of RCOEM celebrated National Voters' Day on 24th of January. The chief guests for the event were Dr. Manoj Daigavane, Joint Director, DTE Maharashtra & Dr. Hema Bade Madam, Deputy collector and electoral registration officer, 56 Nagpur West Legislative Assembly Constituency. Dr. Renuka Nafdey, Nodal Officer & Assistant Prof. of RCOEM and Dr. R. S. Pande (Principal) also encouraged us with their presence. Nodal Officer, Systematic Voter Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) briefed about the activities that were conducted in our college under SVEEP. Following this, all the participants took the oath to exercise the duty of voting.

Dr. Hema Bade madam enlightened the audience regarding the importance of voting and the process of getting the Voter ID card. Dr. Manoj Daigavane sir too, shared his thoughts and inspired young voters to use their right to vote.

A meme making competition on the theme suggested by ECI was also organised by NSS Unit and the results were declared. A total of 55 participants took part out of which 15 were shortlisted and presented in front of the guests. Best five were selected as winner for the above mentioned competition. Subsequently, certificates were also awarded to all the ELC club members of RCOEM by Hema Bade mam.

Anchoring was done by, Mr. Sukhjeet Singh Kohli and Ms. Maahi Kanojiya. Further, Ms. Shruti Upadhyay extended vote of thanks towards all the chief guests and participants who made this event a grand success.
