"TIES THAT PROTECT: COMMEMORATING RAKHI WITH LAW ENFORCERS"

29 August 2023

GITTIKHADAN POLICE STATION

THREADS OF RESPECT

The festival is observed on the full moon day of the Hindu month of Shravana, which usually falls in August. On this day, sisters tie a decorative thread called a rakhi around their brothers' wrists, symbolizing their love, care, and the promise of protection. Rakshabandhan is an auspicious festival to celebrate the bond between brothers and sisters.

Rakshabandhan goes beyond biological relationships, as it can also be observed between cousins, close friends, and even in non-familial contexts. The thread of Rakhi represents not just a physical bond, but also an emotional connection that reinforces the spirit of unity, love, and solidarity among individuals. The festival holds cultural significance in promoting harmony and goodwill. It celebrates the essence of safeguarding one another and recognizing the importance of relationships in building a strong and compassionate society.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Shri Ramdeobaba College of Engineering and Management (RCOEM) organized a Rakshabandhan celebration at the Gittikhadan Police Station on 29th August 2023. The event aimed to express gratitude and honour the dedication of the police personnel by celebrating the spirit of Rakshabandhan. A total of 35 volunteers of NSS participated in the event.

Alongside the rakhi ceremony, the NSS unit distributed sweets among the police personnel. The gesture was a token of appreciation for their tireless efforts in maintaining law and order and ensuring the safety of the community. The event provided a platform for the students to interact with the police personnel on a personal level. This interaction helped bridge the gap between the students and the police force, fostering a sense of mutual understanding. The students got chance to interact with Shri Shyam Sontakke - ACP and Ms. Shubangi Deshmukh - ACP.

The Rakshabandhan celebration left a lasting impact on both the students and the police personnel. The event succeeded in conveying the message of unity and appreciation, showcasing the importance of recognizing the efforts of those who serve the community. This celebration organized by the NSS unit of RCOEM at the Gittikhadan Police Station exemplified the essence of the festival – protection, respect, and gratitude. The event not only strengthened the bond between the students and the police personnel but also emphasized the role of festivals in promoting unity and understanding in society.
